“Lucca” gently eases up the tempo with some near impossible displays of dexterity. “Dropped D” ends the collection with exactly what it says.

Florian Opahle is a name that you might not recognise just yet. Having said that keep your eyes and ears open and there is no doubt he will be appearing with more artists of similar standing to Ian Anderson and Greg Lake. Europhonics is a beautifully balanced showcasing of his natural talent. This is a CD that I will personally treasure.

Understated and yet undeniably brilliant. Florian Opahle is a name to watch out for. Please visit his official website to discover him for yourself.
